

How Alternative Dispute Resolution can help your clients

The vast majority of claims are resolved prior to the trial. Most of the expense related to a claim is expended during discovery, through the hiring of experts and at trial. Why not save time and money by shortening this pricey process? Choosing to mediate or arbitrate can save thousands of dollars as well as valuable time. Your clients will receive a fair and equitable solution in a cost-effective manner. If you are going to trial, using a Mock Jury ahead of time can provide you with priceless and valuable information. As a recent client said “The mock trial was a critical element in analysis for resolution”.
