

CELEBRATING OUR 25th ANNIVERSARY

TLI Best of 2018 and Best Lawyer 2019 Results

The summer of 2018 has brought many honors and awards to ADR Options and three of our judges. ADR Options was voted a Best ADR Company for all nine years of The Legal Intelligencer's "Best of" survey. In this "Best of 2018" edition, the Pennsylvania Legal community's continued support placed us in the Hall of Fame.

Hon. Abe Gafni

Additionally, these votes were extended to Judge Abraham Gafni placing him as a Best Individual Mediator. This was only one of four honors he received this summer. In June, Judge Gafni was named one of 2018's ADR Champions by the National Law Journal. He was one of only 46 people recognized for continuing to make their mark in various aspects of alternative dispute resolution. Judge Gafni's future vision for every organization and community is to "resolve conflict through less traumatic and devastating processes".

Additionally, Judge Gafni was voted a Best Lawyer and Lawyer of the Year for mediation by Best Lawyer magazine. Judge Gafni has been voted a Best Lawyer since the rankings inception in 2005. He has received the distinction of Lawyer of The Year in mediation for 2015 and 2019, and for arbitration in 2013 and 2018.

Judge G. Craig Lord has also been recognized since 2005 as a Best Lawyer in real estate. In 2017 he earned this distinction in arbitration and the 2019 edition included him in the area of mediation. Judge Tom Wallitsch has received this recognition in the arbitration field since 2016.

Hon. Craig Lord

Hon. Tom Wallitsch

Please join me in congratulating Judge Gafni, Judge Lord and Judge Wallitsch on their outstanding service to the ADR field and the legal community.
