MEDIATION AND ARBITRATION VIDEO CONFERENCES

During these uncertain times, ADR Options is providing ALL of our ADR services online through video or phone conferencing AT NO ADDITIONAL COST.

We have held numerous video and phone mediations and EVERY SINGLE ONE has settled to everyone's satisfaction! In addition, these mediations were held with different mediators.

Arbitration hearings have occurred smoothly with the attorneys satisfied enough to schedule additional arbitrations in the coming weeks.

Here is the feedback from our video conference participants:

"I had never participated in a mediation via Zoom. I was surprised how smoothly and effectively it functioned. I am encouraging other members of our firm to use this format, because we may not be in "person to person" settings for quite a while. My clients and I are glad we kept this on and put it behind us. Again thanks very much!"

"Thank you again for conducting the successful ADR this week by video. I found the video to be little impediment to the process and, given the uncertain length of time until a classic ADR could take place, would have no hesitation to proceed by video in other cases. Given my experience this week, it is clearly far better to proceed by video than to let cases languish for indeterminate lengths of time. Thanks again."

"I just wanted to say thank you for setting up and handling the video conference arbitration. Everything went very well. We would prefer to move forward for the next arbitration via Zoom"

"Thank you for your help with the Zoom mediation. The process went very smoothly and the case settled"
