

In addition to providing socially-distant Arbitration and Mediation hearings, we also offer fully virtual hearings and hybrid hearings with some parties meeting in person and others via video conference. Click HERE to request more information.

Arbitration and Mediation Tips

Friday September 25, 2020

12 pm - 1:30 pm

Monroe County Bar Association's CLE Committee, in conjunction with the MCBA's Alternative Resolution Panel, are presenting a CLE on Arbitration/Mediation Tips. This CLE, which will be presented virtually, was previously sold out on a few different occasions earlier this year.

The panel includes ADR Options' neutral Judge Joe Van Jura \(Ret.\) offering many tips on how ADR can increase your value to your client.

Registration is required via email to info2@monroebar.org by noon on Wednesday, September 23rd.

Judge Joseph Van Jura (Ret.) has a combined 48 years of Civil Trial Practice, Mediation, Arbitration and Judicial Trial experience. He was involved in a number of high profile cases, both Civil and Criminal, and has published a number of widely read opinions in numerous areas of law. He is a respected presenter in CLE Programs on the law, ethics and practical issues in Mediation and Arbitration.

Judge Van Jura is available for Mediations and Arbitrations to resolve matters, in the following areas of law:

- Complex Business/Commercial Disputes
- Construction Disputes
- Professional Liability including Medical Negligence Actions
- Personal Injury and Property Damage Claims
- Contract and Insurance Claims
- Employment Law Disputes
- Products Liability Actions
- Family Law, Divorce and Custody Mediations
